

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 20

Approved For Release 2005/01/13 : CIA-RDP88-01350R000200520002-5
28 MAY 1978

6520002-5-2 Honorable Men
Soc 4.06.2 Silent Mission

Best Sellers

NONFICTION

Editors' Choice

THE EYE OF THE STORY, by Eudora Welty. (Random House, $10.) Selected essays and reviews, mostly on writers she loves.

HONORABLE MEN, by William Colby. (Simon & Schuster, $12.95.) An important, vividly written, memoir by the former C.I.A. director.

THE LETTERS OF VIRGINIA WOOLF. Edited by Nigel Nicolson and Joanne Trutmann. (Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, $14.95.) Volume III, covering 1923-28, and showing the writer at her best and worst.

NEW YORK JEW, by Alfred Kazin. (Knopf, $10.95.) Portraits and memoirs of the literary world 1940-70, written with passion and high purpose.

RUSSIAN THINKERS, by Isaiah Berlin. Edited by Henry Hardy and Aileen Kelly. (Viking, $14.95.) Studies of liberal and radical thinkers of the mid-19th century, focusing on Turgenev, Herzen, Bakunin and Belinsky.

SILENT MISSIONS, by Vernon A. Walters. (Doubleday, $12.95.) Shrewd, entertaining observations on high officials the general met during his peripatetic C.I.A. career.